Teen Plastic-Free July BINGO!

Send a picture of each completed challenge to emaconachie@nelson.ca, and LMK if I can share it on NPL's Social Media.

Bring your own reusable cup to your favourite local coffee shop	Visit a local farmer's market	Pack a litter-free picnic	Say no to plastic straws! Try a reusable alternative	Fill your own reusable water bottle instead of buying a plastic one
Pack a litter-free lunch	Steep some tea using loose leaves or plastic-free tea bags	Wear natural fibres	Buy bulk or visit a refillery	Carry your favourite reusable tote bag or make one from an old t-shirt
Make your own beeswax wraps or use another alternative food wrap	BYO and refuse plastic cutlery and takeaway containers	Free Space	Make a craft from recycled materials	Dine-in at your favourite local café
Donate used items to give them new life	Make your own DIY cosmetics or choose to refuse single-use plastic bathroom products	Reuse a container in a creative way	Pick up garbage from a local park or beach	Sign a petition or write to your elected representative, asking them to demonstrate climate leadership
Swap plastic for reusable metal or compostable cutlery for take-away dining	Go thrifting!	Read a book about climate action	Refuse single-use condiments (like ketchup and soy sauce) for take-out fries or sushi	Reuse an envelope or packaging that comes in the mail and post something to a friend

Drop off this card at the library or email emaconachie@nelson.ca by July 31. Each filled line – horizontal, vertical, or diagonal – earns an entry for a chance to win cool prizes!
