Thank you for thinking of the library for exhibiting your art! The library aims to support local artists and give them a platform to share their work with the community.

- Art in the library fosters learning and discovery, and should align with the library’s strategic priorities as outlined in our Strategic Framework.
- Art should foster library values of universal and equitable access; excellent service; diversity, equity and inclusion; sustainability; and meaningful relationships.
- Exhibits should further the library’s mission to spark curiosity, support inclusion and make learning possible for everyone.

Applications are open to everyone but artists from Nelson and/or art that is relevant to the community will be given priority.

We have a gallery wall that is 19.5 wide and 5 feet tall. There is a track system installed, along with moveable hanging hooks. We also have 8 chrome frames (19inches x 15 inches; matted 10 x 13) that are available for use.

Your exhibition will be up for two months. Please note, we are often booked months in advance. You can either have your art publicly for sale or not – it’s up to you. We take a 20% commission for the gallery on all works sold. If your application is successful, you will be presented with an Art Exhibition Contract to sign.

We are curious about you! Alongside providing 5-10 images of the art you would like to exhibit, please share what you would like to about yourself and your work:
